Please read and then initial the following important rules:

_____ Unsportsmanlike Conduct: The following are some examples of unsportsmanlike conduct and will not be tolerated, as they are disruptive to players and unprofessional:

- slamming cues or fists on tables
- talking to the audience during your match
- using your cell phone (text or talk) during your match
- being disruptive to your opponent or other players
- sharking
- forfeiting matches
- talking excessively during matches
- verbal abuse to another player or tournament director (TD)
- physical altercations

If unsportsmanlike conduct occurs during a match and the TD notices or TD is called over to the match for the behavior, offenses will be as follows:

1. After 3 warnings in a single match, player will be forfeited from their match
2. After 3 warnings during a single tournament during different matches, player will be forfeited from tournament stop
3. If either of the above occur for more than 3 tournaments, Omega Tour has the right to ban or suspend players.

_____ Handicaps: I understand that the Fargo Ratings will be used for handicaps and if any player is unestablished they will go by known ability (which is researched by several Tour Members and Tournament Directors). Those handicaps may be raised or lowered at any time at the Omega Billiards Tours' discretion. I agree to abide by the Omega Billiards Tours' assessment of my skill without argument for unestablished players.

_____ Forfeits on Saturday: Failure to inform the Tournament Director you need to forfeit your match on Saturday will exclude you from playing the next tour stop (and you lose your entry fee). Walking out without informing the TDs affects the tournament flow: Trying to locate you takes a lot of time, affects your opponent, causes the tournament to slow down, delays other matches, and affects players.

_____ Forfeits on Sunday: If you forfeit on Sunday for a non-emergency, then you will not get your payout. It will be dispersed evenly among all the spots below you. If you are in the Players Auction payouts, the buyer gets half and the other half is dispersed evenly among all the spots below you.

By signing this agreement, I understand and agree to all the above:
